SilicaLiquid

New Roots Herbal's SilicaLiquid is a colloidal (evenly dispersed) suspension of natural silica, an excellent and easy-to-absorb source of elemental silicon essential for great health. Silica is essential for the structure and function of every organ system within the human body. Silica is also a building block for collagen, the body's most abundant protein.

Strong, healthy hair and nails rank among the most critical benefits to be reaped from supplementation with New Roots Herbal's SilicaLiquid. It will nourish and rejuvenate dull, lifeless hair from root to tip for a noticeably lustrous, full-bodied look. Silica supplementation also delivers the vital nutrients critical to restore flexibility and toughness to brittle, chipped nails.

The youthful, vibrant appearance of healthy skin, hair, and nails can also reflect a natural improvement in general health.

New Roots Herbal's SilicaLiquid has a delicious, natural fruit punch flavour, and is sweetened with stevia. It's 100% natural, non-GMO, and suitable for blood sugar management.

Each tablespoon (15 ml) contains:

Silicic acid providing 53 mg of silica.

Other ingredients: Purified water, citric acid, Stevia rebaudiana leaf, glycerin, natural fruit punch flavour, potassium sorbate, and sodium benzoate.
